

Kathleen O'Brien Ham

*Vice President, Federal Regulatory Affairs
T-Mobile USA, Inc.*

Kathleen O'Brien Ham is Vice President, Federal Regulatory Affairs for T-Mobile USA, Inc. In her current capacity, she oversees the company's work before the FCC and other governmental bodies.

Prior to joining T-Mobile, she worked for fourteen years at the FCC in a number of top policy positions, including Deputy Chief of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. She was also the first Chief of the FCC's Spectrum Auctions Program where she was responsible for the first PCS spectrum auctions.

She also served on the FCC's Spectrum Management Task Force and was involved in the Intergovernmental Advisory Committee that negotiated the reallocation of third generation (3G) wireless spectrum from government to commercial use.

A graduate of Catholic University Law School, she received her undergraduate degree from the University of Colorado, with a Bachelor of Science in Journalism. For the last several years, FierceWireless has named her one of the most influential women in wireless.